Remarks

Had a diamond ring set
in gold on the right
ring finger;
Wore a gold watch on the
left wrist

[] explained that this unknown individual commenced his conversation stating, "You have a good taste for guns and scopes."

b6
b7C

This unknown individual inquired if he, [] was interested in a job, and thereafter explained that the job was for [] to assassinate Senator FRANK CHURCH of Idaho. [] immediate reply was, "No way." This unknown individual continued talking, stating, he would pay [] $1,000.00 for the assassination, plus he would purchase [] gun, scope, and ammunition. [] explained that again he declined this individual's offer, stating he was not interested and walked away from this person. This unknown individual persisted and then removed a blue-print-type map from the inside pocket of his suit jacket. [] described the map as being light blue in color, almost white. [] did observe on the map there was a drawing of the Idaho State Capitol Building, as it would appear if you faced it directly. [] also recalled seeing a drawing of the BANK OF IDAHO Building, which is located on the corner of 6th and Idaho Streets, Boise, Idaho. [] also recalls seeing other streets marked on this map. The unknown individual pointed to the BANK OF IDAHO Building, stating, "I want you on top of the building and facing the State Capitol." [] again told this individual he was not interested.

b7C

The unknown individual never identified himself, nor did he ask [] name. The unknown individual claimed that Senator CHURCH, when leaving for Washington, D.C., would descend the State Capitol Steps and frequently pose for pictures before entering the limousine en route to the airport. This unknown individual implied it was at this time, prior to entering the limousine, that the assassination would occur.

b7C

BT #89-124

This unknown individual appeared knowledgeable in guns and ammunition. This individual also was serious in the assassination plan.

This man never explained any displeasures or problems encountered concerning Senator CHURCH.

[] estimated that he and this unknown individual spoke together for approximately five minutes, at which time the man walked off in a westerly direction inside the mall.

b6
b7C

The unknown man was never seen with any individuals, nor was he seen near a vehicle.

[] was unable to say whether this man was armed with a weapon or not.

The same man never touched [] nor did he make any homosexual advances or implications.

b6
b7C

[] explained that this unknown individual was never seen previously, nor has he been seen since. [] out of fear, withheld mentioning the incident previously.

[] did not purchase a weapon at the mall on that occasion, nor has he purchased a weapon since.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT; Alleged Plot to Assassinate Senator
FRANK CHURCH, State of Idaho, Boise, Idaho

On November 14, 1974, [redacted]
and [redacted]
[redacted] both commented that [redacted] is a mature,
above-average student, and is inclined to speak only the truth. Neither [redacted] nor [redacted] expect anything but the truth coming from [redacted]

b6
b7C

On November 14, 1974, JOHN CHURCH, Chief of Police; and [redacted] Boise, Idaho, Police Department; PAUL
ROBERT COOPER, Chief of Police, Middleton, Idaho; and [redacted]
[redacted] Special Agent, U. S. Secret Service, Boise, Idaho, were advised of the information received from [redacted] [redacted] on November 14, 1974, relative to an alleged plot to assassinate Senator FRANK CHURCH.

b6
b7C

On November 15, 1974, JAMES JONES, Chief of Police, Ontario, Oregon, Police Department, advised he was not acquainted with anyone in the Ontario, Oregon, area meeting
the description of the individual who allegedly initiated the plot to assassinate Senator FRANK CHURCH. Chief JONES stated he would make the description of the individual available to patrol units of the Ontario, Oregon, Police Department.
In the event information were developed concerning this individual or any assassination plot, Chief JONES stated he would immediately contact the FBI.

b6
b7C

On November 15, 1974, [redacted] Oregon
State Police, Ontario, Oregon, advised he would disseminate
the description of the individual believed to be responsible for the alleged assassination plot to all patrol units of the Oregon State Police at Ontario, Oregon.

On November 19, 1974, Chief of Police JONES and [redacted] were once again contacted; however, no information concerning this matter was received.

b6
b7C

On December 30, 1974, and February 5, 1975,
Chief of Police JOHN CHURCH and [redacted] Boise
Police Department, were recontacted and informed no further developments had been received in this matter.

b6
b7C

UNKNOWN SUBJECT; Alleged Plot to Assassinate Senator
FRANK CHURCH, State of Idaho, Boise, Idaho

On December 30, 1974, and February 5, 1975, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was recontacted in an attempt to develop additional information relative to the unknown male who approached him in the Westgate Mall, Ontario, Oregon, on November 4, 1974, relative to a plot to assassinate Senator FRANK CHURCH.

[REDACTED] was unable to furnish any additional information concerning this unknown man. [REDACTED] has had no additional contact with this individual since November 4, 1974. [REDACTED] once again stated that at no time did he furnish this individual his address. Therefore, [REDACTED] doubted he would ever have contact with this person again.

In the event he should obtain any information or in some way observe this person in the future, he would immediately contact the FBI.
